Program Guide

In addition to rigorous academic content that can be found at every DC Public School, a number of specialized programs are offered at schools to further enrich student experiences in the classroom.

Early Childhood Academic Programs

Listed below are the main curricula being implemented in DCPS Early Childhood classrooms. If you are interested in learning more about how these curricula are being implemented in a specific school, attend an open house or contact the school directly for more information.

Creative Curriculum® provides developmentally appropriate, content-rich programming for children with diverse backgrounds and skill levels.

Montessori education fosters a child's natural inclination to learn. Montessori teachers guide rather than instruct, linking each student with activities that meet their interests, needs, and developmental levels. The classroom is designed to allow movement and collaboration as it promotes concentration and a sense of order.

Tools of the Mind helps young children develop the cognitive, social-emotional, self-regulatory, and foundational academic skills they need to succeed in school and beyond.

Dual Language

At DCPS dual language schools, students study grade-level content in both English and Spanish, developing reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills in every grade and subject. Dual language is offered at the following schools:

Bancroft Elementary School
Bruce-Monroe Elementary School @ Park View
Cleveland Elementary School
Columbia Heights Education Campus
Houston Elementary School
MacFarland Middle School
Oyster-Adams Bilingual School
Powell Elementary School
Marie Reed Elementary School
Roosevelt High School
Tyler Elementary School

Equitable Access Designated Seats

The Equitable Access Designated Seats (EADS) program is designed to expand access to seats at DC Public Schools for students furthest from opportunity. Families who meet the criteria will receive additional considerations in the school lottery process when applying at participating schools.*

Barnard Elementary School (neighborhood school)
Capitol Hill Montessori @ Logan (citywide school)
Dorothy I. Height Elementary School (citywide school)
Excel Academy (citywide school)
Garrison Elementary School (neighborhood school)
H.D. Cooke Elementary School (neighborhood school)
John Lewis Elementary School (neighborhood school)
MacArthur Blvd High School (neighborhood school)
Military Road Early Learning Center (citywide school)
School-Within-School @ Goding (citywide school)
Stevens Early Learning Center (citywide school)
Van Ness Elementary School (neighborhood school)

* Visit dcps.dc.gov/page/dcps-equitable-access-designated-seats for the most up-to-date list of EADS schools.

 Opening in August 2023.

District-Wide Offerings

DCPS believes that all students deserve access to enriching experiences that augment their learning in core subjects. Here are some of the many offerings that all students have access to at DC Public Schools.

Arts Education

Across all grades, DCPS students participate in a variety of arts instruction, including music, visual art, and performing arts. Learn more:

dcps.dc.gov/page/art-dance-drama-music-and-visual-arts

Early Learning

DCPS offers free, high-quality, full-day prekindergarten education to 3 and 4 year olds across all wards in Washington, DC. Learn more:

dcps.dc.gov/page/early-childhood-academic-programs

Physical Education, Health, and Athletics

From PK3 through high school, all DCPS students receive health and physical education. In addition to physical education and health instruction, there is also a wide variety of afterschool athletic programs available to students. Learn more about health and physical education at dcps.dc.gov/page/health-and-physical-education.

Learn more about extracurricular athletics at thedciaa.com.

World Language

All DCPS students from PK3 through high school have access to world language instruction. At least one of seven world languages is offered at every DCPS school, including American Sign Language, Arabic, French, Italian, Latin, Mandarin Chinese, and Spanish. MacFarland Middle School (Ward 4)

Middle School Offerings

Algebra and STEM

In order to prepare students for the rigor of high school, all DCPS middle schools offer algebra courses. Engineering and computer science electives are also available, giving students access to robust STEM courses in preparation for high school and beyond.

Extracurriculars

Every middle school student in DCPS has the opportunity to participate in at least one extracurricular program. Offerings include coding clubs, lacrosse, wrestling, rugby, archery, and hockey, as well as wheelchair track and field and unified basketball for students with disabilities.

Study Abroad

All 8th grade DCPS students who are studying a world language are eligible for short-term study abroad programs that focus on language immersion, global leadership, or service learning. This program is fully funded, including passport and visa fees, airfare, meals, supplies, and lodging. Learn more: dcps.dc.gov/page/global-programs

In August 2023, DCPS will open its newest high school! MacArthur Blvd High School (final name to be determined) will be a comprehensive, neighborhood high school serving the diverse interests and needs of students in Ward 3 and across the city. This new school will offer rigorous academics, Career and Technical Education (CTE) pathways, arts programming, and a range of athletic and club options, shaped by community feedback and the interests of the first cohorts of students. By enrolling in MacArthur at its founding, the first cohorts of students will have access to exceptional leadership opportunities and will help to shape the character of DCPS' newest high school. Learn more: dcps.dc.gov/macarthur

Cardozo Education Campus (Ward 1)

High School Offerings

Dual Enrollment

DCPS offers students the opportunity to enroll part-time or full-time at participating colleges and universities while still in high school. Learn more:

dcps.dc.gov/service/college-prep-programs

Advanced Placement (AP)

AP courses offer college-level material to high school students, and give students the opportunity to earn college credit. Every traditional DCPS high school offers at least four AP courses, and all exam fees are covered.

Study Abroad

All 11th grade DCPS students who are studying a world language are eligible for short-term study abroad programs that focus on language immersion, global leadership, or service learning. This program is fully funded, including passport and visa fees, airfare, meals, supplies, and lodging. Learn more: dcps.dc.gov/page/global-programs

Free SAT and Test Prep

Almost all colleges require that applicants submit SAT scores, and DCPS knows practice makes perfect! That's why all DCPS students can take SAT Test Prep through the College Board's Khan Academy. DCPS also provides an annual in-school SAT day, where students can take the PSAT or SAT for free.

Career and Technical Education (CTE)

DCPS career and technical education programs ensure that high school students have access to high-quality training that aligns with the District's high-wage, high-demand careers. Learn more: dcps.dc.gov/cte
