In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, in the fall of 2020, the DC Council approved the temporary relaxation of eligibility requirements for certain public assistance programs, effective through 2024.

The Council voted to temporarily extend eligibility for:

- Family Assistance (DCHA) for families of three or fewer
- TANF (emergency bond 3, DCMR § 5004)
- Food Assistance (DCMRA § 5007)
- Long-term Care Assistance (DCMRA § 5006)

Beginning September 1, 2020, new rules will apply to these programs:

- Updated rules are available in the code of Federal and District of Columbia regulations (CFR) and published in the Federal Register.
- The temporary changes are expected to be in effect through 2024.

The Council also approved the extension of the programs' application period for 2021.

For more information, please contact the Department of Human Services (DHS) at 202-727-6436 or osse.dc.gov.

The Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) will receive and process applications and renewals for these programs. Applications should be submitted online at osse.dc.gov. For more information, contact OSSE at 202-727-6436 or osse.dc.gov.

---

Please note that the application process will change on September 1, 2020. Applicants will need to submit a complete application packet to OSSE. The application packet will include:

- A completed application form
- Income verification documents
- Proof of residency

Applications can be submitted online at osse.dc.gov or in person at the OSSE office located at 1530 P Street, NW, Washington, DC 20004. Applications received after September 1, 2020, may not be processed until the next application period.

DCPS encourages parents to complete this form. DCPS supports parents in the enrollment process at the school(s). Parents who wish to complete the form must do so in person at the school(s). DCPS works with the school(s) to make the enrollment process as smooth as possible. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the school(s).
Title I / Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015 (Every Student Succeeds Act of 2015) requires that schools provide legally mandated accommodations for students with disabilities. Accommodations may be provided in the following areas:

- Assessments: District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) adheres to the requirements outlined in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) to ensure that students with disabilities receive appropriate assessments.

- Accommodations: DCPS must provide students with appropriate accommodations during assessments to ensure that their unique needs are met.

- Emergency: In the event of an emergency, DCPS must ensure that students with disabilities have access to appropriate accommodations to ensure their safety and well-being.

- Paraprofessionals: DCPS must provide students with paraprofessionals who can assist them during assessments.

- Research: DCPS must ensure that students with disabilities have access to appropriate accommodations during research activities.

- Surveys: DCPS must provide students with appropriate accommodations during surveys to ensure their participation.

- Title I: DCPS must provide students with appropriate accommodations during Title I assessments to ensure their participation.

- Tests: DCPS must provide students with appropriate accommodations during tests to ensure their participation.

- Workload: DCPS must ensure that students with disabilities have access to appropriate accommodations during their workload.
